JSN	Daniel Herr	Unit
LIB	Jennifer Motszko, Chair	Unit
NUR	Kay Cowen	Unit
VPA	Jim Wren	Unit
Senate Liaison	Elizabeth Van Horn	2015-2018

Charge: The committee shall preside over elections for the Secretary of the General Faculty and for elected at-large members of Faculty Senate committees. The committee shall conduct the nomination and elections processes and determine the eligibility of the nominees in conformity with The Constitution, the Bylaws of the General Faculty and Faculty Senate, and the membership regulations of the committees; it shall also collate results from electoral division elections and appointments and General Faculty elections and report all results to the Faculty Senate. As part of this duty it shall set a date each year by which the electoral division shall report their results to the Chair of the Faculty Senate and to the Chair of the Committee on Committees. This date should be early enough so that results are known before University-wide elections are to be held. It shall also, in consultation with the committee chairs, recommend replacement members to fill vacancies on their respective appointed committees. For committees with student representation, the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs shall submit the names of students recommended by the President of the Student Government Association to the Committee for inclusion on the committees that have undergraduate representation. The Dean of the Graduate School shall submit names of students recommended by the Graduate Student Association to the Committee for inclusion on the committees that have graduate representation. The committee shall recommend to the Chancellor, as requested, names of faculty members to serve on specially appointed committees. In addition to the above responsibilities, the committee, upon approval by the Faculty Senate, shall recommend to the Chancellor the names of three tenured faculty members from which the Chancellor may select the Faculty Representative to the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Due Process

Elected At Large

BRY	Hamid Nemati, Chair	2015-2018
CAS	Chris Poulos	2017-2020
HHS	Kathleen Williams	2017-2020
LIB	Keith Gorman	2017-2020
Senate Liaison	Allan Goldfarb	2016-2019

Charge: The Committee on Due Process shall exercise the following duties and responsibilities:

a) Receive evidence, conduct hearings, and report its findings and recommendations to the department head and the department head's immediate supervisor or to the Chancellor and, as appropriate, to the Chair of the Faculty Senate, on appeals from administrative decisions involving discharge or the imposition of serious sanctions, termination of faculty employment, and non-reappointment. In exercising its responsibility, the committee shall use the definition of terms and the procedures for such hearings which are established by The Code of The University of North Carolina and the Promotion, Tenure, Academic Freedom and Due Process Regulations of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

b) All appeals arising under Section 603 of The Code of The University of North Carolina shall be heard by the full committee. In all other appeals arising under the committee's jurisdiction, the committee may establish an ad hoc panel of at least three committee members appointed by the chair to conduct hearings, receive evidence, and report to the full committee for the committee's deliberation and recommendation. The panel report shall include records, transcripts, all other written material, and the panel's recommendation. However, no committee member may participate in the discussion or decision on his or her own appeal or in any other case in which that committee member has participated in the recommendations from departments, the electoral divisions, or other University committees.

Charge: The Faculty Committee on Equity, Diversity and Inclusion shall be an advisory general faculty committee, administered by the UNCG Faculty Senate and appointed by the electoral divisions of the UNCG Faculty Senate. The Faculty Committee shall address ongoing planning and implementations of the university's equity, diversity and inclusive excellence initiatives from a faculty perspective. The Committee specifically shall focus on: (a) hiring practices to grow and develop a diverse faculty (i.e., as related to recruitment, retention, and mentoring underrepresented faculty), (b) cultural competence and responsiveness across the community and within curricula, and (c) discrimination based age, race, gender, disability, religion, socio-economic status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation. The Faculty Committee shall collaborate with the Chancellor's Advisory Committee for Equity, Diversity and Inclusive Excellence. This collaboration shall focus on issues that adversely impact the university community regarding equity, diversity and inclusive excellence policies and practices in the interacting areas of faculty and student development, scholarship/research, and curriculum. Identified possible changes to policies and practices shall be reported to the Faculty Senate with recommendations; thereby, providing opportunities for communication and discussions among faculty regarding UNCG's equity, diversity and inclusion issues and initiatives.
